

“TO LIGHT THE FIRES OF SUCCESS, YOU’LL NEED THE SPARK..”

I*n our fast-moving and confusing world of conflicting messages, it's easy for people and organizations to lose focus, confidence and motivation...*

Internationally acclaimed motivational storyteller, author and success coach, D.J. Eagle Bear Vanas (Odawa Indian) is leading those people and organizations to make the leap from “good enough” to greatness – and is on a mission “to build the warriors of tomorrow...today.”

Enduring the extreme conditions of tribal ceremonies and rights of passage, D.J. has had the value of service, perseverance, and following the warrior path burned into his mind and spirit. A warrior's purpose was to develop their gifts to become an asset to the village they served. In modern times, that “village” can be our community, company, clients & coworkers – anyone we serve.

Building bridges between traditional Native American concepts and modern performance methods that get results, his programs combine the “best of two worlds,” inspiring people to achieve their best in life and career.

We all know that motivated employees are more productive, creative, easier to lead and more willing to serve – and much more likely to succeed at what they do. With a dynamic mix of humor, wisdom and practical example, your people will feel pure excitement as they learn powerful principles that can maximize their passion and performance each and every day.

Born into desperate poverty to teenage parents, D.J. has come far by any measure and truly “walks his talk” when it comes to achievement and the warrior path – and he will share these proven techniques, delivering what your people need in a way they want it!

Drawing from a rich pool of experience as a former military officer, a highly skilled motivator who's delivered his captivating programs to over 1300 audiences in 36 states, and a successful business owner and author, D.J. has the background, skill and real-world experience to lead you to the next level. Are you ready to put your people and organization on the warrior path?

“Although D.J. is masterful in inspiring people in his own way using insight, humor, and concrete steps to high performance, I can't help but associate him with the industry greats like Zig, Tony, and Tom. He can inspire desire for excellence, motivate to develop the path, and provide the impetus for action!”

– Kevin Graefe, J.P. Morgan
Participant Services Manager

“Your affable style and seamless transitions made this year's General Session our best ever! You captured the spirit of the event so eloquently that I doubt we will ever be truly happy with any other presenter.”

– Tod LeGarde, Director of Training
Administration Falmouth Institute

“Your presentation thoughtfully blends insight, motivation, and humor with such genius that, for me, you transcend the definition of a motivational speaker. As worthwhile as all the training we've had... has been, your presentation is perhaps the only thing I can confidently say I will never forget.”

– Louis Abramowski, Program Attendee
at “The Warrior Within”

“Mr. Vanas provided Boys & Girls Clubs of America with a first-class presentation during our 2003 [National Conference]. His ability to intertwine personal stories, humor and motivation was amazing.”
